Mafia 3 was my first game for the mafia franchise. Well i'll be damned, I didn't know a true mafia game till i played this! The fighting, driving, weapons and characters are the best, especially Joe! If i didn't have Joe to entertain me, this game would be completely different! I need Joe to give me advice on how to get the ladies... I'm pretty sure this game was supposed to be about Joe secretly.. omg the screen is so hard to see half of the screen\game is at the side I CANT SEE HALF OF THE GAME AND I NEEDED TO SHUT DOWN MY COMPUTER TO GET OFF THAT GAME. ...well you tried.

But seriously this game is pretty much Armored Core meets Diablo with loot shooter elements, but the problem is its so stale and boring that it ceases to be fun about halfway through. The end game content is unsatisfying and getting S ranks on the missions is tedious instead of a challenge. The story puts you to sleep. The part selection and paint is bare minimum and the stats are never explained. All the bosses are basically giant versions of the normal mechs with cheap tactics and that's only if they work properly. I had two of the final bosses glitch out on me quite a few times. It was hilarious but sad at the same time. Also the Hero Creation extension is basically playing the game all over again, with slightly different dialogue and 3 additional missions. I S ranked all the missions in this game just so I can get my money's worth but jeez I only did it cause I was bored.. Joint joint joint damnazione joint joint damnazione joint joint joint joint joint joint joint damnazione joint joint joint joint joint.

If that sentence didn't excite you, you probably won't like the script for this game. The writing feels like a first draft where the second draft was just the same thing with bad attempts at slang shoehorned in. There are multiple conversations where the word joint feels like it's being used every third word. The acting is only slightly better than the script. The only voice actor that felt like he belonged in a game that people charge money for is a character that you have a brief phone conversation with and (as far as I was able to get in 6 hour) never see.

The gameplay feels like something from the 90s. The screen is slow to move and so is the character. If you're in a large room with a lot of things that can be clicked on, you'd better brew some coffee because you'll be waiting a while as Del Nero slowly plods across the room. Fortunately, while examining things in smaller rooms, you get to see him occasionally flap his arms like a chicken, but I don't think that was actually supposed to happen.

Despite the script, the story seemed fairly good for the first little while, but occasioanally you have to make some leaps in logic to figure out where to go next, and if you save and come back or miss a line of dialogue, you may as well just throw darts at the map because there's no real way to figure out where to go next. While the story was decent it eventually started to drag by the time I made my third trip to the docks, so I took a look at a walkthrough and said, "Damnazione, I've still got at least a third of this thing left? I'm getting out of this joint!" Delete local content, move to the "Bad" category.. You have ten seconds to like this comment or just die already.

Awesome Strategic Game , but there problem in gameplay , when i click repair and i drag to other map it click instanly... i hope theres fixing in gameplay. Simple game, but well made. The weapons are well implemented standards, and the racing has more to it than just get the weapons, stay ahead. Each racer has it's own stats, affecting top speed, acceleration, durability, and most interestingly, turning. It makes for an interesting set up, and execution. The best part is that the randomness of the other racers keeps the matches from becoming predictable. Simple, but entertaining, overall.. This is a very moder great looking fast tilting train you dont need to know more this is great!. This is how you make a proper city building game. 9/10. ugh they copied negan! ;/ that is a trustworthy BAD REVIEW!! next time you should tap before you gap xd! #taporgap. unrealistic though good fun. THE ONLY YOU CAN LEGIT DO IS SPIN FIDGET SPINNERS. I WISH I WAS JOKING.
It is hilariously bad.

edit: you can bowl too but its also awful. Pretty good Zelda style game. It's 101% old school and you'll be searching every inch of the map for items with minimal hints, which is good. However combat mechanics and the actual puzzles and dungeons are a bit so-so. If they can improve on those aspects the sequel could be amazing. I bought Vr just so I can experience Horror games immersivly, this game grabed my attention due to it attempting to be different and it actualy works.

I played the game on Vive with controler and other than a few annoyances like when I lean too far the screen goes black though I quickly got used to how far I can lean to not affect my gameplay!

I will update this post as I get further into the game but with the first 2hrs, the game imo is worth the buy

Pros: So far
Vr is implemented

Using sound to travel around is a great idea

Puzzels are a balanced challenge

Cons: so far
Lack of Vr control support for vive

No room scale
